HOW TO GET TO SEEDA, THE OBSERVATORY

BY ROAD – The Observatory, Chatham Maritime is located off the A231 approximately one mile north of Chatham town centre. From the west M25/A2: leave the A2 at the A2/M2 junction, follow signs to Chatham Maritime via the A289 and the new Medway tunnel. Leave the tunnel at the first exit and take the third exit at the roundabout onto Maritime Way. At the next roundabout take the second exit onto Dock Road and turn immediately right; follow signs posted Brunel. From the south: leave the M2 at junction 3, take the A229 and then the A230 and follow signs to Chatham town centre, then follow signs to the Historic Dockyard and St Mary's Island. When you descend Dock Road, the Observatory is approximately 300 metres on the left-hand side, signposted Brunel/Jigsaw Nursery.

BY RAIL – There are frequent train services from London Victoria to Chatham. Journey time is approximately 45 minutes. There are also less frequent services to London Bridge and Waterloo. A taxi rank is located outside of Chatham Maritime station.
